NRS 223.140 Power to close banks and other financial institutions. The Governor shall have the power to direct the closing of any or all banks and other financial institutions for definite periods of time whenever the public interest requires such action to be taken, as in time of war, insurrections, invasions, riots, or a state, district or national financial crisis; provided:

1. That the State Board of Finance shall by formal resolution request such action; and

2. That banks desiring not to avail themselves of such holiday declared by the Governor may remain open and continue to do business upon notifying the Governor of such intention and receiving the consent of the State Board of Finance.

[4:38:1933; 1931 NCL § 3306.03]

NRS 223.150 Governor may order military force to assist sheriff in executing process. If it appears to the Governor that the power of any county is not sufficient to enable the sheriff to execute process delivered to the sheriff, the Governor shall, on the application of the sheriff, order such military force from any other county or counties as shall be necessary.

[86:108:1866; B § 2684; BH § 1721; C § 1867; RL § 2835; NCL § 4835]

NRS 223.160 Governor may order armed force when unlawful or riotous assembly.

1. When there is an unlawful or riotous assembly, with the intent to commit a felony, or to offer violence to person or property, or to resist, by force, the laws of the State, and the facts made to appear to the Governor, the Governor may issue an order directed to the commanding officer of a division, brigade, regiment, battalion or company, to order his or her command, or any part thereof (describing the kind and number of troops), to appear at a time and place therein specified, to aid the civil authorities in suppressing violence and enforcing the laws.

2. The commanding officer to whom the order is given shall forthwith obey the same, and the troops so required shall appear at the time and place appointed, armed and equipped with ammunition as per inspection, and shall execute any order that they shall then and there receive, according to law.

[Part 93:108:1866; B § 2691; BH § 1728; C § 1874; RL § 2840; NCL § 4840] + [94:108:1866; B § 2692; BH § 1729; C § 1875; RL § 2841; NCL § 4841]

NRS 223.170 Armed force to obey Governor's order. When an armed force is called out for the purpose of suppressing an unlawful or riotous assembly, or arresting the offenders, it shall obey such orders in relation thereto as may have been made by the Governor.

[Part 92:108:1866; B § 2690; BH § 1727; C § 1873; RL § 2839; NCL § 4839]

NRS 223.180 Governor may proclaim county in insurrection.

1. When the Governor shall be satisfied that the execution of civil or criminal process has been forcibly resisted in any county, by bodies of persons, or that combinations to resist the execution of process by force exist in any county, and that the power of the county has been exerted and has not been sufficient to enable the officer having the process to execute it, the Governor may, on the application of the officer, or of the district attorney or district judge of the county, by proclamation, to be published in such papers as the Governor shall direct, declare the county to be in a state of insurrection, and may order into the service of the State such number and description of volunteers, or uniformed companies or other militia of the State as the Governor shall deem necessary, to serve for such term and under the command of such officers as the Governor shall direct.

2. The Governor may, when he or she shall think proper, revoke the proclamation authorized by subsection 1, or declare that it shall cease at such time and in such manner as he or she shall direct.

[95:108:1866; B § 2693; BH § 1730; C § 1876; RL § 2842; NCL § 4842] + [96:108:1866; B § 2694; BH § 1731; C § 1877; RL § 2843; NCL § 4843]

NRS 223.190 Governor to advise Legislature of appointments made to fill vacancies. At the earliest day practicable, the Governor shall lay before the Legislature a statement of all appointments made by him or her to fill vacancies in office since the preceding session.

[47:108:1866; B § 2645; BH § 1682; C § 1828; RL § 2811; NCL § 4811]

NRS 223.195 Residency requirement for Governor to appoint person to board, commission, committee, council, authority or other similar body; exceptions.

1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, when the Governor discharges a duty or exercises a power conferred by law, to appoint a person to a new term or to fill actually, as opposed to constructively, resided, for at least 6 months immediately preceding the date of the appointment:

- (a) In this State; and
 - (b) If current residency in a particular county, district, ward, subdistrict or any other unit is prescribed by the provisions of law that govern the position, also in that county, district, ward, subdistrict or other unit.
2. The provisions of subsection 1 do not apply if:
- (a) A requirement of law concerning another characteristic or status that a member must possess, including, without limitation, membership in another organization, would make it impossible to fulfill the provisions of subsection 1; or
 - (b) The membership of the particular board, commission, committee, council, authority or similar body includes residents of another state and the provisions of subsection 1 would conflict with a requirement that applies to all members of that body.
- (Added to NRS by 2005, 1580)

NRS 223.200 Federal Highway Safety Act of 1966: Governor's powers and duties; Highway Safety Program Plan; Highway Safety Program Planning Account.

1. The Governor may contract and do all other things necessary to secure the full benefits available to this State pursuant to the Highway Safety Act of 1966 (including 23 U.S.C. ch. 4). In so doing, the Governor shall cooperate with federal and state agencies, private and public organizations, and private persons to effectuate the purposes of that act and all amendments to it which are subsequently enacted.
 2. The Governor shall administer through an appropriate state agency the highway safety programs of this State and those of its political subdivisions in accordance with the Highway Safety Act of 1966 and federal rules and regulations for carrying it out.
 3. The state agency designated by the Governor pursuant to subsection 2 shall, with the assistance of the Legislative Commission, the Supreme Court of Nevada, the Department of Transportation, the Division of Public and Behavioral Health of the Department of Health and Human Services, the Department of Education and other state agencies and local subdivisions, cause to be prepared a comprehensive Highway Safety Program Plan detailing how the State of Nevada proposes to progress toward long-range state goals to achieve full compliance with the program standards adopted pursuant to the Highway Safety Act of 1966. The Plan must, without limitation, include:
 - (a) Estimates when the State could begin each program specified in the standards;
 - (b) Estimates of annual costs of each program;
 - (c) Estimates when the State will reach full compliance with the standards; and
 - (d) Projects deemed appropriate for planning and administration of the State Highway Safety Program.
 4. Costs of preparation of the Highway Safety Program must be paid from the Highway Safety Program Planning Account, which is hereby created in the State General Fund. Money provided by direct legislative appropriation must be accounted for in the Account, and money received from the Federal Government and from donations must be deposited in the State Treasury for credit to the Account. The state agency designated by the Governor pursuant to subsection 2 may make the necessary applications for federal money and provide required demonstrations that federal money will be matched with state money in the Highway Safety Program Planning Account. The state agency may also accept donations for the purpose of preparing the Highway Safety Program.
- (Added to NRS by 1967, 1113; A 1973, 1406; 1979, 101, 1644, 1787; 1991, 1756)

NRS 223.210 Temporary authority of Governor to act and expend money in certain circumstances; duties of Legislative Commission; report to Legislature.

1. Whenever any Act of Congress, regulation promulgated by the President or from an executive department of the Federal Government, or decision of a court of the United States or of this State requires the Governor to perform any act for which legislative authority is lacking, either absolutely or in the alternative of forfeiting a grant of money or other thing of value or of action by the requiring authority, and the Legislature is not in session and cannot reasonably be convened in a special session, the Governor may, with the approval of the Legislative Commission:
 - (a) Perform the act required.
 - (b) Direct an existing agency, board or commission to do the act required.
 - (c) Accept money or some other thing of value from the Federal Government, and contract with respect to such acceptance.
 - (d) Expend, for the purpose required, any money so accepted from the Federal Government or available to him or her from any nonstate source or from the Emergency Account.
- Any expenditures from the Emergency Account for the purposes provided in this subsection must be first approved by the Legislative Commission.
2. The Governor and the Legislative Commission shall report any action taken by them to the next session of the Legislature, whether regular or special. Unless the Legislature acts affirmatively to authorize the Governor or some other agency, board or commission to do the act required, all authority conferred by this section expires by limitation on the 11th day after the final adjournment of the session. In case of such an expiration, neither the Governor nor any agency, board or commission may expend any money received pursuant to this section except as required by a valid contract executed prior to the expiration.
 3. As used in this section, the phrase "cannot reasonably be convened in a special session" imposes a duty upon the Governor or the members of the Legislature to consider, among other things:
 - (a) The importance of the act required in relation to State Government as a whole;
 - (b) The amount of money to be expended pursuant to this section in relation to the cost of a special session; and
 - (c) The interval remaining before the next regular session.
- (Added to NRS by 1969, 90; A 1977, 329; 1991, 1756; 2013, 3753)

NRS 223.240 Governor may enter into agreements or compacts concerning furnishing and exchange of police services.

1. The Governor may, on behalf of this State, enter into mutual or reciprocal aid agreements or compacts with other states or the Federal Government, either on a statewide or political subdivision basis. Prior to committing the personnel, equipment or facilities of any political subdivision of this State, the Governor shall consult with and obtain the approval of the law enforcement executive and the chief executive of each of the political subdivisions affected.
 2. Such agreements shall be limited to furnishing or exchange of:
 - (a) Police services;
 - (b) Personnel necessary to provide or conduct such services; and
 - (c) Such other supplies, equipment, facilities, personnel and services as are needed to support such services.
 3. The agreements may relate to the terms and conditions of mutual or reciprocal aid and to reimbursement of costs and expenses for equipment, supplies, personnel and similar items for incident management assistance teams and police units.
 4. Any such agreement may not extend beyond the elected term of the Governor of this State who entered into such agreement.
